Important Update from the President of SMSA

New eLedger Format

In early winter, SMSA will launch a new website. In preparation for this, the eLedger format will be changing to an all text format with the October 5th issue. Please plan your submissions accordingly. No flyers, pictures, forms, or graphics can be accommodated after the September 28th issue. Please only submit text after that time.

In the busy world in which we live, your time is important. It has become a challenge not only to inform parents about current events at SMSA, but also to keep news items brief and timely. With the revision of the eLedger to the new format, we hope to meet that challenge.

Kindest Regards,

Kelly Norton

Saint Matthew

“Matthew was a Jew who worked for the occupying Roman forces, collecting taxes from other Jews. The Romans were not scrupulous about what the “tax farmers” got for themselves. Hence the latter, known as ‘publicans,’ were generally hated as traitors by their fellow Jews. The Pharisees lumped them with ‘sinners’ (see Matthew 9:11-13). So it was shocking to them to hear Jesus call such a man to be one of his intimate followers.

Matthew got Jesus in further trouble by having a sort of going-away party at his house. The Gospel tells us that many tax collectors and ‘those known as sinners’ came to the dinner. The Pharisees were still more badly shocked. What business did the supposedly great teacher have associating with such immoral people? Jesus’ answer was, ‘Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. Go and learn the meaning of the words, I desire mercy, not sacrifice. I did not come to call the righteous but sinners’ (Matthew 9:12b-13). Jesus is not setting aside ritual and worship; he is saying that loving others is even more important.

No other particular incidents about Matthew are found in the New Testament.

Reflection

“From such an unlikely situation, Jesus chose one of the foundations of the Church, a man others, judging from his job, thought was not holy enough for the position. But Matthew was honest enough to admit that he was one of the sinners Jesus came to call. He was open enough to recognize truth when he saw him. ‘And he got up and followed him’ (Matthew 9:9b).”

Other Highlights

Job Position from Red Acres: Red Acres at Green Acres is a family owned business. We are a very busy bar/supper club that is open Wednesday through Sunday. Closed Monday and Tuesdays. The Support position that I am looking for is made up mostly of high school kids. A couple from each school is always nice: that way when they have school events, I have the other school kids to cover the shifts. We do work around family, church and school events. The job itself consists of washing dishes, bussing and resetting tables, delivering food to the tables alongside the wait staff, making up salads and dishing up soups. We also have the outside tasks of shoveling snow and watering the plants in summer. We would love to have the chance to meet some of the kids from SMSA. For more information, please contact Kathy at RCGA at 920-906-9110.

Martial Arts America is offering a very special night of Self Defense for all children age 4-12. The program is called Children's Stranger Protection Program, and it is structured to teach children to have the assertiveness and the confidence to think and react in the event they get approached by a stranger intending to harm them.

This program is FREE and is recommended for all children ages 4-12. It is also recommended that children attend with a parent!

The Children's Stranger Protection Team will teach students how to use Body Language, Eye Contact, Voice, and Physical Skills in a BIG LOUD WAY, that will enable them to get to safety. The Children's Stranger Protection Team will also use role playing, and costumed "strangers" (in a very age appropriate way) to give a "real scenario" situation. "Today is Enough An everyday Spirituality"

WOMEN'S MINISTRY KICK-OFF EVENT

Jennifer Christ, who is an instructor in the Deacon Formation Program in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, will present how four basic actions (trust, joy, self-discipline and prayer) help us to live each day fully in a right relationship with God.
