

CAMPUS PLACEMENT TESTING METHOD:

UW-Eau Claire Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Green Bay Placement test is needed for math. ACT/SAT subscores will be used for placement into English.

UW-La Crosse Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Madison Placement tests are required for math and English. UW-Milwaukee Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Oshkosh Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Parkside Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Platteville Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-River Falls Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Stevens Point Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Stout Placement tests are required for math and English.

UW-Superior Placement test is required for math. ACT/SAT subscores will be used for placement into English.

UW-Whitewater Placement test is required for math. ACT/SAT subscores will be used for placement into English.

UW Colleges Placement tests are required for math and English. Foreign language placement testing is available and optional at each testing site.

UW SYSTEM REGIONAL PLACEMENT TESTING CHART Registration for placement testing for fall 2018 new freshman starts on February 1st. On the placement testing website you will find FAQs about testing and the placement testing contact list: testing.wisc.edu/centerpages/regionaltesting.html.

UW HELP has gathered information on the methods used to place students in math and English at each UW System campus. This chart contains the standard procedure for incoming freshman students. Please contact the campuses' testing office with special circumstances.