Presenting the gospel through feats of: Strength, testimonies and challenging people in making good life choices.

A group of athletes, conditioning experts, strongmen, and power lifters with a concern for today's struggles and temptations our young generation faces each and every day. They present an action-packed presentation that will amaze any crowd.

They are a YWAM (Youth with A Mission) mission movement called to see the great commission fulfilled through evangelism, building up the Church and ministry planting. They focus on the following:

- Proclamation, Evangelism, Mercy Ministry, Training and Networking
