

Monday, March 2nd Ideas

- Paired reading--middle school teachers will initiate a doc
- Create one-pagers (online pdf) for a favorite Dr. Seuss story
- Dress: Mix it up Monday--no colored hair or hats--jeans and sweats are okay--with mismatched clothes
- Lunch: green eggs & ham, Goldfish crackers, birthday bites (cakes)
- Dr. Seuss Escape room activity (online)
<http://www.escapeadventures.com/dr-seuss-escape.html>
- Seussville.com--optional
- Book Swap for K-5--sign up google doc will be shared for classes to come to the MPR on Monday, March 2nd
- An email will be sent to K-5 to put in their newsletters with more details about the Book Swap
- Build Your Own Seussville - Use recycled materials like paper towel tubes, boxes, and cups to help create a fun and whimsical city! Be inspired by the castle in the Oh the Places You'll Go, Whoville etc.
Judged like the pumpkins outside the book fair
Size limited to standard poster size for the base
Must gather your own supplies (may contact a room parent for supplies but cannot assemble it--the kids should do the work)
Due: Thursday, February 27, at 3:00 p.m. on the table by the library (Grades P-8) Be sure to include a tent with the name and grade level of your class
- Read around the school (floor). Each floor can pick a time for the kids to read anywhere on that floor. Work it out among yourselves for each floor (this is NOT the paired reading doc)
